

Dana Prymak

Dana is a 3rd year BA student, majoring in political science and economics with minor in management. Coming herself from a multicultural background, she values diversity at the workplace and at TRU. Dana's main passion is working on institutional projects and policies, cooperating with different departments to achieve goals, doing necessary research for improving the quality of provided services, as well as, engaging students and listening to their opinions. She is very enthusiastic about community involvement and tries to spend her free time volunteering with different organizations. Dana has a prior experience being a member of Student Caucus, member of a Steering Committee for Student Caucus, member of Research and Budget committees of Senate and had an honour to serve as an International Student Representative on the TRUSU Board of Directors (2015-2016). Among the major projects Dana has been involved with are Student Budget Consultations (2015, 2016), implementation of Student Course Evaluation, including international students to Health and Dental plan, campaign for more affordable parking. For the past 9 months she has been studying abroad in South Korea and Italy, where she was able to get a better understanding of foreign cultures and workplaces, to serve as an intern at the Centre of Corporate Social Responsibility in Seoul, as a Marketing Manager at Milan Model United Nations and to work as a Cultural leader for newcomers at the University Del Sacro Cuore Cattolica (Milan). She believes that the student feedback is a crucial part of a process and, if elected, will try her best to fulfill the position of a Student Representative on the Board of Governors.
