1.0 General Election Procedures

1.1 Schedule of Elections

- i. Fall Elections will be completed by the end of December. (Before winter break). The nomination process will usually take place in the month of September. Candidates elected in the fall election cycle will commence their term beginning January 1.
- ii. Winter elections will be completed by the end of April. The nomination process will usually take place in the month of February. Candidates elected in the winter election cycle will commence their term beginning September 1.
- iii. By-elections will be held in the event that an elected candidate cannot complete their term of office and that their seat cannot be filled by other means as defined in the University Act. By-elections will be incorporated into the next possible fall or winter election cycle.

The election timeline for each cycle will be determined by the Registrar and posted to the TRU elections web page.

1.2 Election Register

As per section 45 of the University Act, an election register of faculty, staff and students eligible to run and vote will be prepared at the commencement of each election cycle according to constituent vacancies that have been identified.

People and Culture is responsible for providing the Registrar with an alphabetical list containing the names and email addresses of all eligible faculty and staff members.

The Registrar is responsible for generating the list of names and email addresses of all eligible students.

The election register must be open to inspection at all reasonable office hours by all eligible faculty, staff and students. The election register cannot be copied or distributed.

Only those persons named in the election register are entitled to vote in an election. When requested, a representative of the Registrar will be available to confirm eligibility.

1.3 Nominations

At the commencement of an election cycle, the Registrar will publish on line the call for nominations, along with a list of vacancies, the election schedule, and the nomination forms.

The nomination period will begin with the call for nominations and will be a minimum of five (5) business days in length. Late nominations will not be accepted after the close of nominations.

All nominations must be in writing, using the nomination forms made available by the Registrar. Nomination forms must be signed by the nominee indicating their consent to the nomination, and by three (3) nominators who are eligible to vote.

TRU Open Learning students running as student members for the Planning Council for Open Learning may self-nominate.

All student nominees are encouraged to confirm their eligibility with Enrolment Services prior to initiating the nomination process to ensure they are eligible to run in the election.

The Registrar or designate will acknowledge receipt of all nominations and will confirm candidate eligibility via email.

All nominees are encouraged to review relevant legislation, by-laws, and terms of reference for the governing bodies to which they seek election. (see: relevant legislation attached, TRU Senate, Board of Governors, Planning Council for Open Learning,)

The nomination period will be followed by four (4) weeks before the voting period commences.

1.4 Candidate Statements

Candidates that meet election eligibility requirements will be invited to submit a brief candidate statement. Candidate statements shall be no more than one page (8.5 x 11) and may include the following information:

- a) Credentials earned and the dates of them
- b) Occupation
- c) Other offices currently or previously held, either at TRU or at other organizations
- d) Professional or business interests
- e) Publications
- f) Community involvements
- g) Volunteer activities
- h) Student candidates may wish to include program/area of study

Candidate statements are to be submitted electronically in Word or PDF format, with file size no larger than 10MB.

Candidate statements received will be published on line as PDFs with content as-is. Candidates are advised to omit personal contact information.

1.5 Campaigning

The campaign period shall commence as soon as possible and no later than five (5) business days following the end of the nomination period. Candidates and their proponents may begin to campaign only after the Registrar has confirmed the eligibility of all candidates and published the names of all candidates online. The campaign period will continue up to and including the voting period.

All candidates are required to act responsibly and with integrity when campaigning. The following guidelines are provided to assist candidates in planning campaign materials and activity:

- a) Campaign materials must not contain information other than that related to the candidate's platform and information regarding the schedule of the election
- b) TRU will not provide prospective voter contact lists to candidates or their proponents for the purpose of election campaigning, including TRU email, personal email, and phone numbers.
- c) Campaign activity and materials must comply with all TRU policies including, but not limited to Respectful Workplace and Harassment Prevention (BRD 17-0), Responsible Use of Information Technology Facilities and Services (BRD 16-0), Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (ADM 2-0), Health and Safety (ADM 5-0), and Posting Procedures (ADM 01-3), Responsible use of University Space (ADM 32-0).
- d) Campaign activity must comply with TRU's area and table booking rules issued by Ancillary Services
- e) Soliciting votes door to door on campus housing is against residence's policies.
- f) Campaigning must not disrupt classes or regular campus operations.
- g) Candidates and their proponents must not be engaged with eligible voters when they are aware, or ought to reasonably be aware, that they are voting, and must not provide any electronic devices or login credentials to voters for the purpose of voting.
- h) Candidates are responsible for the removal of all campaign materials within a reasonable time following the close of the elections.

Campaign materials and activity found to be in violation of university policies, rules, or procedures, including the guidelines listed here, may result in disqualification from the election.

1.6 Voting and Results

- i. Voting period: The voting period will be a minimum of three (3) business days commencing no sooner than four (4) weeks after the close of nominations. Voting will close as per election timeline published by the Registrar. Voting will be conducted by anonymous and secure on-line ballot. No ballots will be accepted after the close of voting. Candidates and their proponents must not approach or contact voters during the voting period to ask them to cast a vote on a personal laptop computer, cell phone, or any other electronic device.

- ii. Results: In an election where only one candidate is to be elected, the candidate with the highest number of votes will be declared elected. In an election where more than one candidate is to be elected, the candidates with the highest number of votes will be declared elected.
The Registrar will communicate all election results within five (5) business days of the close of elections as per the following procedures:
  - a) Each candidate will be notified by email of their own outcome.
  - b) All election results, including voting counts and outcomes of all candidates, will be posted online.
  - c) All election results, including voting counts and outcomes of all candidates, will be reported to the Senate at the next possible meeting following the election.

- iii. Tie votes: In the event of a tie between two or more candidates for an office, the Senate must cast the deciding vote according to the following procedures:
  - a) Tied nominees will be made aware, by email, of Article 16(2)-University Act, and that Senate will address the tied vote at the next available Senate meeting.
  - b) The Registrar will provide to Senate, the biographic information of candidates for vacancies resulting in a tie vote for Senate's consideration.
  - c) The Registrar will present the election results in the public Senate session and indicate that the tie votes will be discussed and decided by secret ballot in an in-camera Senate session immediately to follow.
  - d) Tie-vote results will be reported by the Registrar publicly on the elections web site the following day.
  - e) Tie-vote counts will not be announced - final vote counts published on the elections web site will indicate one (1) additional vote for the successful candidate in the tie break.

- iv. Acclamation: Should nominations produce a number of candidates equal to or less than the number of positions being elected, then no voting through the balloting process will take place and the candidates nominated will be elected by acclamation.

If a candidate has withdrawn or been disqualified and, as a result, the number of remaining candidates is equal to or less than the number of vacant positions the remaining candidate will be elected by acclamation.

1.7 Withdrawals

A candidate who wishes to withdraw their nomination must notify the Office of the Registrar in writing. Upon receipt of a written withdrawal of nomination, the candidate will cease to be a candidate for election.

When a candidate's written notice of withdrawal is received before the start of voting, the candidate's name will be excluded from the electronic ballot.

When a candidate's written withdrawal is received after the start of voting, the election will continue with the remaining candidates and the withdrawn candidate will be listed on the electronic ballot with the notation "candidate withdrawn". Voters who have already cast a vote for a candidate who withdraws after the start of voting will not be permitted to re-cast their vote.

1.8 Disqualification

Campaign materials and activity found to be in violation of university policies, rules, or procedures may result in disqualification from the election. The decision to disqualify will be made by the Registrar.

If a candidate is disqualified before the start of voting, the candidate's name will be excluded from the electronic ballot.

If a candidate is disqualified after the start of voting but before the election closes, the election will continue with the remaining candidates and the disqualified candidate will be listed on the electronic ballot with the notation "disqualified". Voters who have already cast a vote for a disqualified candidate will not be permitted to re-cast their vote.

If a candidate is disqualified after the election closes, and they have been declared the winner, the candidate with the next highest number of votes will be declared the winner.

A disqualification may be appealed under the election appeals procedure.

2.0 Vacancies and Eligibility

2.1 Board of Governors

- i. Elected positions: The TRU board of governors is composed of 15 members. The following positions are filled by election:
  - a) Two (2) faculty members elected by the faculty members
  - b) Two (2) students elected from students who are members of an undergraduate student society or a graduate student society
  - c) one (1) person elected by and from the employees of the university who are not faculty members

2.5 Filling Vacancies

- i. Board of Governors
Board vacancies are to be filled as per Part 6, Section 25 of the University Act.

ii. Senate and Planning Council for Open Learning

Senate vacancies are to be filled as per Part 7, Section 36 of the University Act.

As per Section 4, Part 3 a) of the Thompson Rivers University Act, Planning Council for Open Learning vacancies are to be filled in the same manner as outlined for Senate in Part 7, Section 36 of the University Act.

For the purposes of section 36(4)(b) of the University Act, if a vacancy occurs on Senate or the Planning Council for Open Learning in the case of an elected member it shall be filled by the candidate who received the most votes among those who were nominated but not elected in the most recent election. In the event the seat was filled by acclamation, the constituency represented by the seat will designate a replacement from within their constituency in accordance with procedures the constituency considers to be fair.

3.0 Appeals

An appeal with respect to election procedures, results, or candidate disqualification must be made in writing to the Secretariat by email to secretariat@tru.ca with a copy to the Registrar within ten (10) days of the announcement of election results or decision to disqualify.

Appeals will be considered by the Senate Appeals Committee in accordance with its procedures.

Ballots will be retained for thirty (30) days following election results being announced, or upon the resolution of an appeal, whichever is later.

(2) A member of the board who ceases to be eligible during the member's term of office immediately ceases to be a member of the board.

Section 24: Vacancies on the board

(1) If a vacancy arises on the board because of the death of a member or for any other reason before the end of the term of office for which a member has been appointed or elected, the secretary of the board must enter a declaration of the vacancy in the minutes of the board.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1) is conclusive evidence of the vacancy.

Section 25: Method of filling vacancies and effect of vacancy

(1) If a vacancy exists in respect of an appointed member, the Lieutenant Governor in Council must appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

(2) If a vacancy exists in respect of an elected member, the appropriate body must elect a replacement.

(3) A person appointed under subsection (1) or elected under subsection (2) holds office for the remainder of the term for which the person's predecessor was appointed or elected.

(4) A vacancy on the board does not impair the authority of the remaining members of the board to act.

Part 7 – Senate

Section 36: Term of office

(1) The term of office of a member of the senate, other than one elected under section 35 (2) (h), 35.1 (2) (h) or (3) (h) or 35.2 (2) (h) or appointed under section 35.2 (2) (k), is 3 years and after that until a successor is appointed or elected.

(2) The term of office of a member of the senate elected under section 35 (2) (h), 35.1 (2) (h) or (3) (h) or 35.2 (2) (h) or appointed under section 35.2 (2) (k) is one year and after that until a successor is elected.

(3) Members of a senate who remain eligible under section 35, 35.1 or 35.2 may be reappointed or re-elected in the manner provided under section 35, 35.1 or 35.2 for further terms.

(4) If a vacancy arises on the senate, the vacancy must be filled,

(a) in the case of an appointed member, by the body possessing the power of appointment, or

(b) in the case of an elected member, in the manner specified by the senate.

(5) A person appointed or elected to fill a vacancy holds office for the remainder of the term for which the person's predecessor was appointed or elected.

(6) The secretary of the senate must enter a declaration of the vacancy in the minutes of the senate.

(7) A declaration under subsection (6) is conclusive evidence of the vacancy.

Part 9 – Nominations, Elections and Voting

Section 43: Rules for elections

- (1) The senate must make and publish all rules necessary and consistent with this Act in respect of nominations, elections and voting.
- (2) The registrar must conduct all elections that are required.

Section 44: Nomination paper to registrar

A nomination paper is not valid unless at least 4 weeks before the date of the election

- (a) it is delivered at the office of the registrar, or
- (b) if sent by mail, it is received by the registrar.

Section 45: Election register

- (1) In every year in which an election is to take place, the registrar must prepare an alphabetical list, to be called the election register, of the names and known addresses of all members of the convocation who are entitled to vote at an election.
