TRU WolfPack Information

2013 Thompson Rivers University WolfPack Men's Hockey

The WolfPack begins another BC Intercollegiate Hockey League season with a lot of new faces. There are only 10 players who helped Thompson Rivers to a third place finish in the BCIHL in 2012-13 back for the start of this campaign.

Four of them are on the blue line including second year players: Blake Moynes (Burlington, ON) Ben Bula (Kamloops, BC) and Scott Bollefer (Lake Lenore, SK) along with third year forward Travis Herlein (Calgary, AB) who is being converted to defense.

Up front: Jake Howardson (Pitt Meadows, BC), Anthony Delong (Castlegar, BC) Josh MacDonald (Calgary, AB) along with Duncan Schulz and Tyler Jackson (both Kamloops, BC) will be expected to produce more offense.

General Manager Chris Hans and head coach Don Schulz did a lot of recruiting in the Pacific International Junior Hockey, Kootenay International Junior Hockey and BC Hockey League, and feel they have improved the team at every position.

They also received two transfers from BC IHL champion Selkirk College, Stephen Wolff (Logan Lake, BC) and Brodie Gibbon (Parksville, BC).

Wolff will be one of three new faces in the TRU goal this year along with Mark Menicucci (Surrey, BC) and Chris Solecki (Burns Lake, BC). Menicucci backstopped the Aldergrove Kodiaks (PJHL) last season while Solecki played with the KIJHL Fernie Ghost riders.

Menicucci is one of three WolfPack recruits moving to the Interior from Aldergrove. The others are Daniel Higgs (Langley, BC) and Ryan Veillet. The 'Pack also has two players who were teammates with the PJHL Delta Hawks: Ryan Cuthbert (Richmond, BC) and Alex Martin (Cloverdale, BC).

And they have two former Nelson Maple Leafs (KIJHL) in Cameron Weir (New Westminster, BC) and Colton Schell (New Westminster, BC).

Former BC Hockey League players now wearing the orange, black and white of Thompson Rivers are Sean Maktaak (Penticton BC-Merritt Centennials), Richard Vanderhoek (Langley, BC-Cowichan Capitals), Tyler Berkholtz (Penticton, BC-Trail Smoke Eaters) and Silvan Harper (Coquitlam, BC-Merritt Centennials).

Schulz will have Kevin Johnston back as his primary assistant coach this season along with former captain Andrew Fisher. Steve Blundell has moved upstairs to assume the role of Assistant General Manager.

Thompson Rivers University WolfPack

Head Coach Don Schulz

Schulz became the WolfPack's third head coach in as many years in June 2011. He played with and was assistant coach for the Cariboo College Chiefs in the 1980s. The Chiefs competed in the CCAA Nationals four years in a row. He also led the Kamloops Jardine's "AAA" Bantam Blazers to a successful season in 2010-11, including winning the prestigious Kamloops International Bantam Ice Hockey Tournament. This is his third season behind the bench of the WolfPack.

Assistant Coach Kevin Johnston

Kevin is entering his second year as an assistant coach with the Wolf Pack hockey team. A coaching product from the Kamloops Minor Hockey Association, Kevin Coached 15 years at various levels as a head and assistant coach. His playing career included Junior hockey in Ontario and CIAU hockey in the Western Conference with University of British Columbia (after head coach Don Schulz). Kevin is a Forester and continues to work in the forestry profession.

Assistant Coach Andrew Fisher

Andrew is starting his first year as an assistant. He played three seasons with the WolfPack (2009-12). He was the winner of the TRU Athletics Sports Task Force Athlete of the Year in his final year of eligibility(2011-12). Andrew was a BCiHL all-star that year as well. He is a graduate of the TRU Police and Justice program.

Assistant Coach Terry Bangen

Terry has a long and storied past with the TRU hockey program. He was the former head coach and assistant athletic director of Cariboo College and the University College of the Cariboo in the 1980s and early 1990s. He is a former assistant coach of the WHL Kamloops Blazers, the NHL Vancouver Canucks and New York Rangers. In recent years, he was the Director of Player Development with the WHL Tri Cities Americans. Don Schulz was one of his scouts. Terry still does some work with the Americans.

General Manager Chris Hans

Hans has been with the WolfPack hockey program since its inception. He was the team's first coach in 2009-10, before moving into a director's role with the Kamloops Collegiate Hockey Society. He returned last season as the general manager. He has coached many different levels of hockey including professionally overseas.

Assistant General Manager Steve Blundell

Blundell joined the WolfPack in September 2012. He is taking an assistant general manager's position this season. Steve has 18 years of coaching experience with the Kamloops Minor Hockey Association from Initiation "C" to Midget "AAA." Blundell coached with WolfPack head coach Don Schulz in Bantam "B" hockey in 2004. He is an employee with Tolko Industries.

Strength & Conditioning Coach Greg Kozoris

This is Kozoris' fifth year with the 'Pack. He is a former college goalie who owns the Acceleration High Performance Program in Kamloops. He currently works with a number of NHL players including Phoenix Coyotes Captain Shane Doan.

Goalie Coach Richie Kohorst

This is Kohorst's second year as goalie coach. He is the owner/operator of Pro Active Goaltending.

Assistant Conditioning Coach Shane Mainprize

2013-14 is the first for Shane in this capacity. He was one of the WolfPack goaltenders for two seasons (2011-13). He is a former BCHL goalie with the Merritt Centennials and grew up in Valemount, BC.

STEPHEN WOLFF

Logan Lake, British Columbia (Kwalicum Secondary)
6'3" Goal
1st year (Arts)
23 years old (September 20, 1990)
Parent's names: Ellen & Ron

Stephen transferred to Thompson Rivers this summer along with former Selkirk Saints Brodie Gibbon. Stephen grew up in nearby Logan Lake but his parents moved to Qualicum Beach, BC. He appeared in six games last year with the BCIHL Champs and won all six with a goals against average of 2.62 and had a save percentage of .913. Stephen credits his parents for being his biggest influences because they did so much for him during his life and worked hard for him to get where he is today. He loves to read and enjoys golf. His favorite movie is Black Hawk Down because he likes war films. His favorite food is chicken. Stephen's greatest sports moments are either winning a bronze medal at the Cyclone Taylor Cup in Junior "B" or winning the BCIHL in 2012-13 with Selkirk.

SEAN MAKTAAK

pronounced Mack-tack

Penticton, British Columbia (Princess Margaret Secondary)
6'1" Forward
1st year (General Studies)
21 years old (June 3, 1992)
Parent's names: Theresa & Henry

Sean committed to the WolfPack in May 2012 after finishing his junior "A" career with the BCHL Merritt Centennials (eight goals, 25 assists in the regular season and three points in the playoffs with 66 penalty minutes). He was named the Centennials Most Gentlemanly Player last season. Sean plays competitive lacrosse for the South Okanagan Heat in the off season. His biggest influence in life is his father and he says "If I work half as hard as he did his whole life, I will be successful." Sean loves pulled pork and his fondest moment was winning the 2010 Challenge Cup. He played minor or junior hockey with current teammates Brandon Watson and Cameron Weir. His favorite movie of late was Ironman 3.

ALEX MARTIN

Surrey, British Columbia (Clayton Heights Secondary)
6'2" Defence
1st year (Police and Justice)
21 years old (April 3, 1992)
Parent's names: Susan & Howard

Alex played Junior "B" hockey last season with WolfPack teammate Ryan Cuthbert for the Delta Ice Hawks. He was with the Hawks team which won the 2011-12 PJHL championship and was named his team's best defenseman the past three years. In 2012-13, Alex had six goals and 23 assists and 78 minutes in penalty time. He has a criminology diploma from Kwantlen Polytechnic University. Alex wants to be a police officer in the future. He enjoys all outdoor activities. Alex loves pasta and his favorite movie is Shawshank Redemption. His greatest sports moment to date was winning the BC Juvenile hockey title with his brother's team when he was 17. His pre-game routine includes a meal and a nap.

SCOTT BOLLEFER

Lake Lenore, Saskatchewan (Lake Lenore School)
6'4" Defence
2nd year (Business Administration)
22 years old (August 31, 1991)
Parent's names: Monique & Dean

Scott appeared in 24 games last season scoring once and adding seven assists. He had eight minutes in penalty time. He was a two-time winner of the Nipawin Hawks (SJHL) Community Service Award and Best Defensive Player of the Year (2010-12). He had only eight assists in his final season with Nipawin due to a compound fracture in his left arm. He says his last season with Nipawin (2011-12) was the most fun he has ever had playing any sport. Scott would like to graduate with a degree and then become an RCMP officer in the K-9 Unit. He enjoys reading, video games, hunting and sports.

10

Castlegar, British Columbia (Stanley Humphries Secondary)
6'1" Forward
2nd year (Business Administration)
22 years old (February 8, 1991)
Parent's names: Rhonda & Dave

Anthony played in 22 games in his first season with TRU scoring 13 goals and adding six assists. He had 24 minutes of penalty time. DeLong was the first recruit of 2012-13, joining the WolfPack immediately after the BCIHL season ended in March. This followed as season of 39 goals and 43 assists for the KIJHL Castlegar Rebels and he was the team's top scorer and MVP. His highlight of being a member of the WolfPack is scoring his first ever BCIHL goal in his hometown in an exhibition game in September. DeLong enjoys outdoor activities and says his greatest sports moment was getting to the KIJHL final two years ago (2010-11).

RYAN VEILLET

pronounced Vee-et

Cloverdale, British Columbia (Sullivan Heights Secondary)
5'11" Forward 20 years old (December 4, 1992)
1st year (Business) Parent's names: Terri & Lyle

Ryan came to the WolfPack along with Aldergrove Kodiak (PJHL) teammates Daniel Higgs and Mark Menicucci. All three committed to the team in March 2013. Ryan appeared in 34 games scoring 11 times and adding 19 assists with six penalty minutes for the Kodiaks last season. His brother Chad played for the BCIHL Trinity Western Spartans. Ryan was a member of the Burnaby Winter Club team which was Provincial and Western Canadian Bantam "AAA" Champions. He was a member of the Langley Blaze baseball program from 2000-2008. Ryan says Detroit Red Wing Pavel Datsuk is his biggest influence in hockey: "his skill and determination is what I strive to achieve, his quotes inspire me to constantly push to be better, his passion and drive for hockey are what I aspire to attain." Ryan adds that his biggest influence in life is God, his family and friends. He enjoys ping-pong, pool and poker. Some of his former minor hockey teammates playing collegiately include Brayden Jaw (Harvard), Tim Daly (St Cloud State University-Minnesota), Joey Lalegia (University of Denver) and Kaleigh Fratkin (Boston University).

He was team captain in 2012-13 and was seventh in league scoring with 25 goals and 42 assists and 154 minutes in penalty time. Colton would like to be playing professional hockey five years from now with an eye to being a police officer. His favorite movie is Billy Madison starring Adam Sandler- Colton says he "loves a good comedy now and then." He was "player of the month" on his respective junior teams in 2010, 2011 and 2012. Colton's greatest sports moment so far was when he was named captain of the Maple Leafs and his fondest memory in sports was winning a gold medal in a pee wee tournament. His former minor hockey teammate Matt Hewitt is playing in the CIS for UBC.

29CHRIS SOLECKIpronounced So-lets-ski*

Burns Lake, British Columbia (Lakes District Secondary)

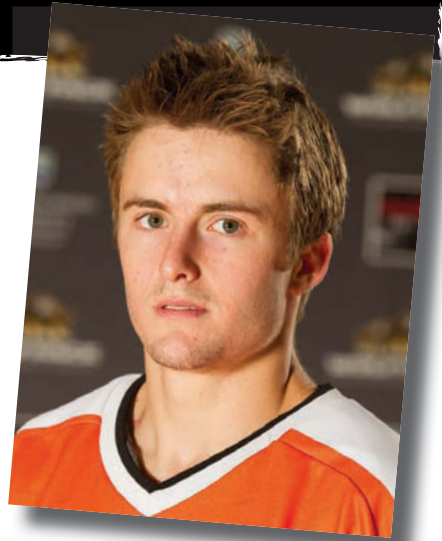

5'10" Goalie

1st year (Natural Resource Science)

21 years old (April 12, 1992)

Parent's names: Cya & Jon

Chris committed to the WolfPack in May after finishing his junior career with the KIJHL Fernie Ghostriders. He was named the MVP and most inspirational player last season with Fernie. Chris had a record of 24-12-1 with a goals against average of 2.88 and a save percentage of .912. Chris has two brothers and a sister and his parents are farmers near Burns Lake. His father played university basketball. Chris enjoys playing the guitar, mountain biking and all sports. His favorite food is potatoes and cheese. When he was 13, Chris was attacked by a grizzly bear and broke his femur and fractured his skull in two places. His greatest sports moment was in the KIJHL when Fernie beat Kimberley in seven games in 2010-11 (his younger brother was playing for Kimberley at the time).

33*MARK MENICUCCIpronounced Men-e-choochy*

Surrey, British Columbia (North Surrey Secondary)

6'0" Goal

1st year (General Studies)

19 years old (October 10, 1993)

Parent's names: Nora & Vic

Mark is one of three members of the 2012-13 Abbotsford Kodiaks (PJHL) who joined the WolfPack in the off season. He led the Kodiaks to the PJHL final and was named to the league all-star team. Mark had a goals against average of 2.17 with four shutouts, a record of 19 and 2 in 28 games. He had a save percentage of .934. Mark says his late grandfather would have been very proud to see him attend university and play hockey. His fondest memory was winning a high school hockey championship in 2011. His former teammates Thomas Hardy and Matt Luongo played last season in the BCIHL with league champion Selkirk. Mark's second cousin is former Vancouver Canuck great, Trevor Linden.

39*TYLER BERKHOLZpronounced Burk hol-tz*

Penticton, British Columbia (Princess Margaret Secondary)

6'0" Forward

1st year (Business)

21 years old (January 19, 1992)

Parent's names: Betty Ann & Greg

Tyler played in the BCHL last season for the Trail Smoke Eaters where he had 45 points in 56 games and was named their MVP. He committed to the WolfPack in August of 2013. Tyler played competitive lacrosse and was a member of Team BC which came second at Nationals where he was a second team all-star. He played minor hockey with current WolfPack team mate Sean Maktaak. He loves steak but his pre-game routine is having chicken and pasta. He says his hobbies include anything to get him out of the house. His father Greg is the biggest influence on his life because he looks up to him.
