

Faculty of LAW

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

INTERNATIONAL REQUIREMENT

September 14, 2015

In order to graduate from the Faculty of Law at Thompson Rivers University, all JD students must complete a course fulfilling the “International Requirement” during their second or third year.

The International Requirement may be fulfilled by one of the following two options:

1. By satisfactorily completing and achieving a grade of C- or better, in at least one of the following courses:
 - a. Conflict of Laws
 - b. International Trade Law
 - c. Public International Law
 - d. Corporate Governance
 - e. Comparative and International Indigenous Rights
 - f. Comparative Law
 - g. International Intellectual Property

or
2. By satisfactorily completing a “Study Abroad” during a spring or summer term or during the fall term of the student’s third year, if approved in advance by the Associate Dean.

Upon completion of the International Requirement, the student shall provide a Written Declaration indicating that the Requirement has been met and setting out which course or option was used to meet the Requirement and the semester in which it was completed.

Failure to provide the Written Declaration in a timely manner may preclude the student from graduating. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure the Written Declaration is submitted to the office of the Associate Dean upon completion of the International Requirement.