My name is John Faul, and I am running to be the new TRU Senate member. I was born in Saskatoon, SK, and raised in Calgary, AB, where I received my Bachelor of Arts with Distinction in Political Science at the University of Calgary. Presently at TRU, I am a first year law student at TRU.

I am running for the TRU Senate for I believe that I will be a strong advocate for the student body as a whole. In particular, I would like to focus my attention as a senator in making research opportunities for undergraduate students more accessible, as well as restructuring academic awards so that they are available for a larger percent of the student body. In addition, I pledge to compile a list of student concerns and voice them appropriately and efficiently at each meeting I would be a part of.

Outside of my academic career, I am an avid golfer, runner, and have founded the TRU Law Hiking Club. I have been an active member in intramural soccer at TRU as well. To add, I enjoy music, and had volunteered at a radio station in Calgary when I was an undergraduate student. Moreover, I have an open-door policy, and would like to talk to anyone who would like to know more about who I am, and what I am about, especially for why I want to be elected into the TRU Senate.

Finally, I look forward to the Senate election during March 13 to March 17, 2017, and I hope that I may have the chance to represent you in the TRU Senate. Remember, a vote for FAUL is a vote for ALL!
