Date:

It is the consensus of the committee that (check one):

- the student has passed their defense and the thesis is acceptable as is or with minor revisions.
- the student has passed their defense, although some attention is needed to correct weakness or deficiencies in the student's thesis before they have fulfilled their requirements for graduation; the committee as a whole does not need to meet to re-examine these issues;
- the student has passed their defense, but significant steps must be taken to correct weakness or deficiencies in the student's thesis; the committee as a whole needs to re-convene to discuss whether these issues have been resolved before the student will have fulfilled the requirements for graduation;
- the student has failed their defense but sufficient promise of success is evident and therefore a second defence may be scheduled
- the student has failed their defense and should be requested to withdraw from the program of study.
