EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING & RESEARCH RELATED SERVICE

2013-Present Dissent, Democracy & the Law Editorial Board
Founder & Managing Editor (2013-2014); Contributing Editor (2014-Present)

- Description: Founded in 2013, the Board brings together scholars, lawyers and civil society members interested in the nexus between civil society and the law, with a focus on legal and political advocacy, dissent and democratic institutions.
- Institution Building: As Managing Editor, I facilitated the recruitment and selection of the Board's Editors. I conceptualized its mandate and designed Policies and Procedures in consultation with members from civil society and the academy.
- Online Publishing: As Managing Editor, I oversaw the research and publication of the Voices-Voix Documentation Project. As a Contributing Editor, I continue to supervise law students writing case studies for the Board, as volunteers or as part of their course work.

2008-Present Coordinator/Co-Founder, Justice & Corporate Accountability Project (JCAP)
Thompson Rivers University & Osgoode Hall Law School

- Description: JCAP assists in holding corporations and states to account by offering legal knowledge to communities that are negatively affected by natural resource extraction. In 2012, JCAP became part of Osgoode Hall Law School's experiential education community engagement program. In 2014, JCAP began working with law students at Thompson Rivers University.
- Institution Building: I co-founded JCAP and collaborated in conceptualizing its mandate and drafting materials for its website, funding proposals and policies on confidentiality and due diligence.
- Legal Writing: I regularly collaborate in drafting memoranda of fact and law, as well as submissions to domestic and international courts and administrative bodies.
- Transnational Collaboration with Pro Bono Lawyers: I have extensively consulted and collaborated with lawyers based at law firms and NGOs in Canada and Latin America.
- Supervision of Law Students: I have supervised the pro bono work of numerous law students. In 2011 I designed and supervised an international student internship supported by the CIDA-funded Canadian Bar Association (CBA) Young Lawyers International Program.
- Advocacy & Facilitation: I have designed international and national advocacy strategies and designed and facilitated community-based workshops.
