

Early Childhood Education Diploma

Inspiring Learning and Creativity

A three-semester program with two post-diploma specialty options.

What makes Early Childhood Education at TRU a different kind of learning experience?

- Full-time and part-time options to suit your needs and learning style
- Innovative practicum model
- Knowledgeable, experienced and friendly faculty
- Access to student awards and bursary programs
- Dedicated classroom space (AE 300 and AE 304)
- Small class sizes, close connections to faculty and a focus on student success
- Earn your ECE Diploma in 3 semesters
- TRU ECE graduates are respected (and hired!) in the community
- ECE graduates can ladder into three TRU degrees; Bachelor of Education, Bachelor of Inter-disciplinary studies, Bachelor of Social Work.

Program Description

The Early Childhood Education (ECE) program at TRU provides exemplary models of innovative practice and opportunities for classroom-based research so that students can acquire the necessary knowledge and skills to become effective educators of young children.

Graduates find rewarding jobs in group child care centres, pre-schools, family child care programs and other child care facilities. This is a rapidly expanding field as many parents realize the benefits of some form of pre-school education for their children. Many families today also find they need some form of supplementary childcare services, which are dependable both in continuity and quality.

"TRU Early Childhood Education students become valued employees ... The high standards set by the program are clearly evident as students work toward completing their practicum placements. Upon completion of their courses, and as employees, we find the competencies and quality of the students from TRU to be above average in the early childhood experiences and in-depth relationships they bring to our children and centre." - Quote from a Director of a Kamloops non-profit Child Care Society.

Special Needs Educator Post-Diploma Certificate

Semester 4 (January - April) 2016 and Alternate Years

Graduates of the ECE program may want to continue their studies so they can work with children with special needs. NOTE: Students not having obtained an ECE Certificate/Diploma from TRU may be required to take a 1st year University Level (3 credit) English if Official Transcripts indicate the course or equivalent has not been completed.

The Special Needs Educator post diploma certificate provides ECE graduates with the opportunity to continue their studies with a focus on children with individual differences. Areas of learning include: child development, supporting children’s social skills, programming for individual children, critical reflection, working with a team of educators and other professionals to facilitate inclusion, the ECE’s professional role, and skills to support families. Students have the opportunity to connect theory and practice in practicum.

Special Needs Post-Diploma Course Requirements		Credits
ECED 3300	Practicum - Individual Children (L)	5
ECED 3310	Child Growth and Development - Individual Differences (L)	3
ECED 3550	Programming for Individual Children (L)	3
CMNS 2290	Professional Business and Technical Writing	3

Note: Completion of ECED 3300, 3310, 3350, 2440 & 2490 meets the Ministry requirements for a Special Needs license to practice.

Completion of the above courses plus a second level English meets the TRU requirements for a Special Needs Post-Diploma Certificate. Students can enrol in the English at a later date if desired.

Infant/Toddler Educator Post-Diploma Certificate

Semester 4 (January - April) 2017 and Alternate Years

Note: Completion of ECED 3400, 3410, 3450, 2440 & 2490 meets the Ministry requirements for an Infant/Toddler license to practice. Completion of the above courses plus a second level English meets the TRU requirements for an Infant/Toddler Post-Diploma Certificate. Students can enroll in the English at a later date if desired.

Early Childhood Education: Government Regulations

Certification

Completion of the ECE Diploma satisfies the requirements of the Community Care Facilities Branch (CCFB) of the BC Government for Certification as an Early Childhood Educator in British Columbia.

The program does not, by itself, qualify a person to teach in a kindergarten that is part of a public school system. Certified teachers who have completed or are in the process of completing an appropriate degree in Education usually staff public school system kindergartens.

Completion of the post-diploma certificate satisfies the requirements of the Community Care Facilities Branch (CCFB) Services for a Certification as a Special Needs Educator, and an Infant/Toddler Educator in British Columbia.

Ministry Requirements

The Ministry of Children and Family Development requires 500 hours of work experience under the supervision of a Certified Early Childhood Educator in order to qualify for Certification as an Early Childhood Educator. Many of these hours can be completed between the second and third semester as either a volunteer or a paid assistant in an early childhood education setting. For further information about certification requirements, visit:

<http://www.mcf.gov.bc.ca/childcare/ece/> or toll-free through Enquiry BC at 1-888-338-6622.

Program Policies

Part time Students: For students wishing to complete the ECE diploma program on a part-time basis, a limited number of spaces are available. Please indicate your interest in this option on your application form.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR): PLAR is a concept that permits the student to earn credit for post-secondary level knowledge regardless of where or how the learning occurred. A student may be assessed for prior learning for some of the courses in the ECE program. Applicants must meet all program prerequisites, and be admitted to the program prior to applying for PLAR. Please see the program coordinator for more information about PLAR.

Diploma to Degree Options

TRU Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Degree (BIS)

This two-year degree program is open to both undergraduate university students and diploma graduates. The BIS is a unique program that allows students to design their own curriculum customized to their interests and goals. ECE students interested in entering the Bachelor of Elementary Education (B.Ed) program might consider this option. Consult with the BIS advisor.

BIS Admission of Diploma Graduates: Successful completion of the TRU ECE diploma with one of the post-diploma specialties; (60-90 credits) with a minimum GPA of 2.5.

The admission process is selective. This means all applications will be reviewed, and credits from other institutions will be evaluated for transfer according to established standards determined by appropriate articulation committees, or the Office of the Registrar. Applicants may be requested to attend an interview with members of the BIS Steering Committee.
