

How to Read the Online Course Schedule

1. Select Fall or Winter Term (it helps to open two windows – one for each semester)
2. At the 'Class Schedule Search' - select course, scroll to bottom of page and select Class Search (you can also specify course number, campus, and course level)

Quick edit: In subject box type in the first 3-letters of your course (example: soc for Sociology), to automatically scroll to the first course beginning with the letters soc - scroll down to Sociology)

Quick edit: If you want to search for more than one subject at the same time, hold down the 'CTRL' key when you click on additional subject and they will become highlighted

Callouts from the right side of the image point to the following elements:

- Section Number (scroll to view multiple sections of the same course)
- Click on title to find out capacity of course and number of seats still available
- Click on 'View Catalogue Entry' to find course description and Linked Courses, Seminars or Labs
- Take note of any Linked sections

4. Take note of the CRN (Course Reference Number)

- Each course section has a unique CRN, as does each Lab and Seminar
- Remember to write down all CRN numbers on your Timetable/Worksheet, as you will need to know them to register into your courses

ESAL Courses Quick Edit:

Students must type 'English' (must use spacebar after the word English) to automatically go to English as a Second or Add Language courses.
