

Bachelor of Journalism

Online Tutorial Academic Advising

THOMPSON RIVERS
UNIVERSITY

KAMLOOPS, BC

Purpose of This Tutorial

- Explain the specific requirements for TRU's Bachelor of Journalism program
- Assist students in selecting appropriate courses and making a personalized education plan

Main Topics

- Role of Bachelor of Journalism Program Advisor (Chairperson of Journalism)
- Admission Requirements
- Application and Registration process
- Graduation requirements
- Course selection
- Role of Academic Advisors

Bachelor of Journalism

- program blends theory and skill development to train students for jobs as journalists and communication specialists
- develops writing, editing, interview, and photography skills
- works with new technology to produce print and online publications
- teaches communications theory, media law and ethics, decision making, and critical thinking

Journalism Program Advisor Chairperson of Journalism

- Chairperson of Journalism assists students in selecting 300 - 400 level courses
- Students must consult with the Chairperson of Journalism, Maxine Ruvinsky, for course approval to take an upper level course
- Office: Old Main Building, Room 1841
- Phone: 250-371-5925
- E-Mail: mruvinsky@tru.ca
- TRU Journalism

Bachelor of Journalism Admission Requirements

1. Completion of 60 university credits (minimum 54 credits), or
2. Completion of a Journalism (or similar) Diploma, or
3. Completion of an Undergraduate degree

Admission is to Year 3 of the Bachelor of Journalism
Length of program: 4 semesters

Foundation Diploma or Degree Holders

Students holding a Foundation Diploma, or minimum 54 Liberal Arts credits can apply directly to the Bachelor of Journalism program (year 3)

See the next screen “How to Apply” screen

Students already holding an approved University degree have two options.

They may apply for entry into:

1. The regular two year Bachelor of Journalism program OR
2. The one year Post – Baccalaureate Diploma program

How to Apply

*Apply anytime after October 1st

*Application can be made three different ways:

1. Apply online
2. In-Person (OM1155)
3. Mail:
Admissions/Registration
Old Main Building
Room 1155
Kamloops, BC

New TRU students pay $25.00 application fee

Submit all official transcripts

Complete application package and submit to Office of the Registrar

Submit to Admissions

1. Completed TRU Application form
2. Official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended.
TRU students' transcripts on file.
3. Prospective students are required to:
 - demonstrate reasonable keyboarding and computer skills
 - submit a writing sample
 - may be required to attend a pre-enrolment interview, including a short writing skills test

Admission Process

- The Bachelor of Journalism is a “selective admission” program. The School of Journalism usually receives more applications than it has spaces available.
- Some applicants who satisfy the minimum requirements may not be offered a seat in the program.
- Journalism Admissions Assistant – Jane Holmberg
- 250-828-5251 or e-mail to: janeholmberg@tru.ca
 - Early applications are accepted until Feb 15
 - If space available, applications may be accepted to April 30

Admission Process

Preference is given to students who have:

- strong writing skills
- a good understanding of Canadian history, politics, economics, and geography
- strong problem-solving and critical thinking ability
- good oral and interpersonal skills

Students are advised to do some volunteer work in the field before applying to the program.

Qualified students may request permission to be admitted to the program on a part-time basis

Admission with Liberal Arts Electives (2+2 Degree)

Years 1 and 2 – 60 credits of Liberal Arts including:

- 3 credits of 1st year English (One of ENGL 110, 111, 112, 114)*
- 3 credits of 2nd year English
- 6 credits History and/or Political OR
- 48 credits in Humanities, Social Sciences, Science and/or Business
 - with courses that are writing intensive, and
 - with significant Canadian content

* TRU students must complete 6 credits of first year English prior to any second year English course

Students may be admitted after the completion of 54 credits

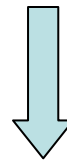

Path of Acceptance: Liberal Arts Electives (2 + 2)

Apply to year one
at TRU:

Arts/Science/Business
or Visual Arts

Obtain minimum of 54
credits (maximum 66 credits)
including admission requirements to Bachelor of Journalism

Apply to this program
by the deadline
February 15 each year

2 years in the Journalism
program

Graduation:
Bachelor of Journalism

Laddering Options

It is possible for a student to earn one of the following two year (60 credit) Associate Degrees or Diploma before being admitted to Journalism:

- Associate of Arts,
- Associate of Science,
- Associate of Commerce and Business Administration

Typical First Year Liberal Arts (Pre-Journalism)

September – December
Fall Term

ENGL 110

Lab Science Elective

POLI 111*

HIST 112*

Elective

* Recommended elective

January – April
Winter Term

ENGL 111, or 112, or 114

Math or Business Elective

GEOG 222* or 223*

HIST 122*

Elective

Download Journalism Advising sheet

Electives for Pre-Journalism

Select a wide range of first and second year courses from Humanities, Social Science, Science and/or Business – focus on Writing Intensive and/or Canadian content courses.

Humanities: Chinese, Film, French, German, History, English, Japanese, Music, Philosophy, Spanish, Speech, Theatre

Social Science: Anthropology, Canadian Studies, Economics, Geography, Political Studies, Psychology, Sociology

Math/Science: Astronomy, Biology, Chemistry, Computing Science, Geology, Mathematics, Physics, Statistics

Electives - continued

- A maximum 12 credits can be taken from Social Work and Physical Education (3 credit maximum for Activity courses)

Canadian Content Courses

ANTH 214,219,223

HIST112,122,204

CNST 200,242

POLI 111,223,225

ECON 243

SOCI 201,210,213,250

ENGL 204,217,227

VISA 215

GEOG 222,223

Now the Work Begins...

To help prepare for your meeting with an Academic Advisor, you need to refer to the course requirements in the current online Calendar.

- Review each course description; determine whether or not you meet the pre-requisite and the co-requisite (if any).
- Check online 'Schedule of Credit' courses for specific offerings for each semester.
- Write down the courses in their scheduled semester.
- Prepare a timetable for each semester attending.

Graduation Requirements (Regular 2+2 Program)

- Normally 48 credits of Journalism courses and 12 credits of electives (at the 300/400 level)
- 60 credits liberal arts (100/200 level) or foundation diploma
- Total of 120 credits (minimum)
- Minimum cumulative Grade Point Average C(GPA) of 2.0

Tuition Fees, Textbook and Supplies

- One 3 credit course tuition will cost $465 plus ancillary fees, or is approximately $525
- One full semester of 5 courses, or 15 credits will cost approximately $2625.
- Textbooks and supplies vary with each course; budget approximately $150 per course or $1500 per year

Commitment Fee

- Prior to enrolling in any courses, student must first pay a $300 commitment fee
- The commitment fee is a down-payment towards their Fall Semester fees
- Once admitted and assigned a registration date, students can access their “myTRU” account and can pay the commitment fee online using a VISA or MasterCard credit card
- The Commitment fee can also be paid in person at the campus cashier or by sending a cheque directly to TRU Campus Cashier....include your student number!
- Balance of Fall Semester fees are due at the end of August or prior to the first day of class; winter semester fees are due at the end of November each year.

Successfully Enrolling at TRU.....

Learn how to Prepare a 'Conflict Free Timetable'

Students enrolling for the first time, should read through the online 'Timetabling Tutorial.' It explains how to create a conflict free timetable and how to read the online schedule.

Take the Online Timetabling Tutorial

Learn How to Register Online

Students register for their courses using 'TRU Online'

Learn how to register by:

Reading about myTRU

Taking the online Registration Tutorial

Checking the 'Schedule of Credit Courses' to make sure your choices are still open for registration

You will have to decide if you want to WL for that course or select an alternate course

Learn more about Registration

- Go to the TRU website and learn about registration priority and fees.

Learn more about registration!

Start with Step One...

An online tutorial to help prepare you for post-secondary

- If you are uncertain where to begin and need help determining your first step, complete the 'Step One' online tutorial. It is designed to:
 - help students understand program offerings, admission requirements, and course information
 - explain how to apply to a program and become admitted
 - overview the registration process and explain how to enrol in courses using our website
 - provide information on financial aid resources
 - provide direction on how to read the TRU Calendar
- It will help prepare new or returning students begin their studies
- Offered online for review

Still have questions.....need Help?

Contact the Academic Advising Centre

Academic Advisors

In Person:

Kamloops Campus,

Old Main Building, Room 1100

Email: Advising@tru.ca

Phone : (250) 828-5075

For more information go to: <http://www.tru.ca/advising>

Thank you for viewing the Bachelor of Journalism Tutorial!

