

THE THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE DONORS

Prospective donors of books, journals and other materials to the Thompson Rivers University Library are advised that gift materials are evaluated and selected by the same criteria as those materials which are purchased. This means that the proposed donation must meet a current or anticipated curriculum need at TRU.

Donated materials become the exclusive property of the Thompson Rivers University Library and will not be returned to the donor. The Library has the right of refusal, retention and disposition of all donated materials.

Please provide information as requested below. For books, the Library also requires an itemized list (Author, Title, Date of Publication). For magazines and journals, title, volumes, issue numbers and date are needed.

The information will be reviewed by a librarian and the donor will be contacted regarding the appropriateness of the donation for the TRU curriculum.
