

Valedictorian Nomination Form

The valedictorian is a student chosen to represent the entire graduating class and address the graduands and guests at Commencement. At TRU, our valedictorian is selected using the following criteria:

- Must be a graduating student with a minimum "B" average
- Display community and university involvement
- Have the support of your classmates

You can nominate yourself or one of your classmates. Nominations are submitted to the Commencement committee, who will make the final decision. If you are interested in being the 2018 valedictorian, or would like to nominate a classmate, please complete the form and submit it to Amy Carson in the Administration Office by Tuesday, April 3, 2018.
