

Tenure and Promotion Sessions, June 2-5 via BlueJeans Videoconferencing

Preparing for Tenure & Promotion

Tuesday, June 2

10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Join AVP Academic, Donna Petri, and TRUFA President, Monica Sanchez-Flores, for a presentation on the process, requirements, protocols, deadlines, and Collective Agreement language that can help you to have a positive promotion & tenure experience. There will be opportunities for clarification and a Q&A related to the tenure and promotion process at TRU. Register here.

Is a CV the Same Thing as a Resumé?

Yes & No

Tuesday, June 2

1-2 p.m.

Join Larry Iles, Senior Faculty, Career and Experiential Learning Department and member of the Senate Tenure and Promotion Committee, for a presentation on professional CVs, and tips on how the Senate Tenure and Promotion committee views the CV as part of the overall portfolio. Register here.

Evidencing Your Teaching for Promotion, Tenure, and Awards

Wednesday, June 3

1-2 p.m.

Throughout your teaching career, you may be asked to demonstrate your teaching proficiency or excellence. This request may relate to a component of a tenure or promotion dossier or to your nomination for a teaching award. This workshop will explore dimensions of teaching using an educational leadership mapping tool that will help to evidence and support your teaching skills beyond course evaluations. Tenure and Promotion - Candidate Panel

Thursday, June 4

10-11 a.m.

Are you planning to apply for tenure or promotion? Are you wondering about best practices, or looking for mentorship? Join our panel of candidates who have recently attained tenure and/or promotion at TRU. Having successfully navigated the policies and processes, panelists will share their expertise and experiences. Please bring your questions. Register here.

Document Management Online

Friday, June 5

10-11 a.m.

Will you need a teaching or professional role portfolio in the near future? Does your current portfolio need a facelift? A teaching or professional role portfolio is a critical component for the tenure & promotion process. Join Brenda Smith, Open Education Librarian and long-time member of the University Tenure and Promotion committee, for a conversation about document management and tips for the creation of your portfolio. Participants may be at any stage of their portfolio development. Register here.

Writing Your Educational Philosophy

Friday, June 5

1-2 p.m.

Your Teaching Philosophy or Educational Philosophy Statement is a required component of your package(s) for Tenure and/or Promotion. This session will include a discussion of the components of a philosophy statement, strategies for composing one, a critique and discussion of some samples, and a guided writing exercise to begin exploring your own educational philosophy.
