

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Program

2018-2019 Admission Information

Program Description

This is a four-year, limited-seat degree program that entails eight academic semesters starting alternating years in September for 24 students. Upon successful completion of the BScN Degree Program, graduates are eligible to write the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX). Upon successful completion of the NCLEX, you apply for registration to the College of Registered Nurses of British Columbia (CRNBC) to practice as a Registered Nurse (RN). TRU Williams Lake offers years 1 and 2 of the BScN program. Students can continue their studies at TRU Kamloops or at a different institution. Transfer credits are at the discretion of the institution to which you apply.

Intake Date

The BScN program offers one intake every other year, beginning in September. The next intake will take place for Fall 2018. Applications are accepted from October 1 to March 31.

Next Steps

1. You will be contacted within 2 – 3 weeks to confirm we have received your application
2. Use the checklist in this package to make sure you have included all the supporting documents required
3. Once Admissions has reviewed your application and applicable supporting documents, they will notify you about the admission decision
4. Students who are admitted will be required to pay a commitment fee of $500 prior to registration in courses

Selective Admission

The School of Nursing Selection Committee uses a selective admission process to determine admission to year 1 of the BScN program. Only complete applications are reviewed. During this process, applicants are assessed on their academic performance including high school and post-secondary course grades. Applicants with strong academic performance/grades will be considered for admission.

TRU Admissions will notify all reviewed applicants whether they have been "Accepted," "Waitlisted" or "Not Accepted." Acceptance is conditional and will not be deemed final until all documentation has been submitted. Students are required to pay a $500 commitment fee to secure your seat. It will be held as a deposit toward your fall tuition.
