

ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL STUDIES

Economic and Political Studies are essential factors in understanding the various processes of Globalization. This combined Major equips students with the necessary tools to understand how structure of the global economy effects governments and economies at the local, provincial, and national levels.

CONTACT US

TINA BLOCK

Chair, Department of Philosophy,
History & Politics
Email: tblock@tru.ca
Phone: 250-828-5329

ADMISSIONS

Applications for admission to most programs are accepted starting October 1 each year for programs beginning in August or September of the following year. Check the website for complete details on admissions processes:

www.tru.ca/future/admissions

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Arts

Courses for this major are offered at all undergraduate levels. The first and second year are quite broad, to broaden students understanding. The Upper-Year courses are more structured in areas of community development, the environment and sustainability, and area studies.

FIELDS OF STUDY

- Canadian Politics and Economy
- Political and Economic Theory
- Comparative Studies
- International Studies
- Public Policy and International Relations
- Public Policy Administration
- Political Behaviours

CAREERS FOR GRADUATES

- Politics
- Government
- Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs)
- Law
- Journalism
- Bureaucracy
- Business
- Public Relations
- Research Professional