

HISTORY

History is the study of humanity's recorded past. It encompasses virtually all aspects of human activity and behaviour. At TRU, you will have the opportunity to study many historical aspects, including the American Civil War, the history of British Columbia, the concentration camp within a global context, religion in Canada, and Medieval Europe.

CONTACT US

TINA BLOCK

Chair, Department of Philosophy, History & Politics

Email: tblock@tru.ca

Phone: 250-828-5329

ADMISSIONS

Applications for admission to most programs are accepted starting October 1 each year for programs beginning in August or September of the following year. Check the website for complete details on admissions processes:

www.tru.ca/future/admissions

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Arts

The arts, sciences, technology, economics, ideology, and social attitudes are all as much a part of history as politics and war.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

- Dynamic Lectures
- Historical Reconstruction
- Role-Playing Games
- Unique Research Projects
- Small Group Seminars
- History and Politics Undergraduate Conference
- History Club Events

TRU History majors not only learn about the past, they develop exceptional research, writing, analytical, and communication skills — skills that are in top demand by today's employers.

CAREERS FOR GRADUATES

- History
- Social Studies Teachers
- College Professors
- University Professors
- Researchers
- Museum Curators
- Archivists
- Law
- Journalism
- Library Work
- Social Services
- Publishing
- Government
- Politics