

‘In a Nutshell’

Undergraduate 3-minute Thesis Competition

March 17th 6-8 PM, 2nd floor of OLARA

Who Can Apply?

- Any undergraduate student currently enrolled at TRU who has conducted a research project.

How to Apply

- Complete the following Google Form by March 9th, 2023 11:59 PM
- Applicants will be notified about their acceptance by the evening of March 10th 2023

Rules & Guidelines

1. A single static PowerPoint slide is required. Images used in the slide must be your own, or you must have permission from the owner of the photo(s) and provide proper credit (literature references should be cited using a recognized citation style).
2. No additional electronic media is permitted (e.g., sound, video files).
3. Can include additional props (e.g., costumes, lab equipment)
4. Presentations are limited to 3 minutes maximum.
5. Presentations that go over 3 minutes will be disqualified.
6. Presentations can be spoken, or in the form of a poem, rap, song ...
7. Presentations must be based on original student research (presenting someone else’s work will not be accepted).
 - a. Research done as part of a course project will be considered, however, preference will be given to students who conducted their own original research (i.e., UREAP, USRA, Directed Studies, Research Assistant, Research Apprentice, Community Engaged Research Fellow, Knowledge Makers, Honours Thesis)
8. The decision of the adjudicating panel is final.

Event – March 17th 6-8 PM, 2nd floor of OLARA

- Competition will begin promptly at 6 PM
- Presentations will be scored by an interdisciplinary panel of student Research Ambassadors
- Prizes will be awarded & food/drink will be provided

For further inquiries, please contact studentresearch@tru.ca