

MODERN LANGUAGES

Modern Languages provides skills training in the proficiency of First Nations languages, French, German, Japanese and Spanish. As global economies become more complex, the need to communicate successfully in cultures other than our own and to reach out beyond English-speaking commonalities becomes crucial. Laying the groundwork for proficiency in another language now can also greatly enhance your future travel enjoyment.

CONTACT US

JOSIE FISCHER

Modern Languages Coordinator

Email: jfischer@tru.ca

Phone: 250-371-5768

ADMISSIONS

Applications for admission to most programs are accepted starting October 1 each year for programs beginning in August or September of the following year. Check the website for complete details on admissions processes:

www.tru.ca/future/admissions

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Arts

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

Our students have access to many special projects and opportunities, including:

- International exchanges and study abroad
- Field schools
- The nation-wide Explore program
- Language clubs
- Service learning opportunities for international students as classroom and cultural facilitators
- Occasional offerings in other languages through MLAN

CAREERS FOR GRADUATES

Graduates with proficiency in languages other than English can aspire to employment as an:

- Overseas business representative
- NGO worker
- Translator
- Court interpreter
- International legal worker
- Teacher
- Industry protocol assistant