COMMUNITY CORPORATION

Hi! My name is Mani Saggi and I am a first-year law student running to be your next student representative for the TRU Community Corporation. The TRU Community Trust manages development on TRU property. It is a concept similar to the University Village at UBC and includes residential housing, student residences, retail shops, restaurants, and student spaces.

I did my undergraduate studies at UBC, with a passion for political science, and more specifically, policy making. My main interest in political science was to explore who makes the policies, and how different countries function in their respective governments. These questions ultimately led me to law school. Being involved in the law school allows me to get to know the law faculty really well, but I want to use my skills to stand up for TRU students as a whole.

I also enjoy exploring opportunities through different clubs. I have been a part of many clubs including Youth Transforming Society and SOAR Philanthropic Society. I am currently an executive member of the Criminal Law Club, which I was fortunate enough to help found just earlier this year! Being a member of different clubs has allowed me to meet new people and has given me the opportunity to learn from others.

My goal is to have a strong student voice here at TRU. This includes being transparent with the students of TRU and raising the collective concerns regarding property management. I will listen to the concerns and bring them to the table to ensure that student needs are being addressed.

I look forward to serving as your next student representative for the TRU Community Corporation and together we will UNIFY Thompson Rivers University!
