

Guideline for
Pre-Rehabilitation Sciences
Master of Occupational Therapy, MOT
University of British Columbia, Vancouver

The Master of Occupational Therapy degree, offered at The University of British Columbia. The full-time Master of Occupational Therapy curriculum spans two calendar years (24 months) beginning each September.

The MOT program is offered on a competitive basis (48 seats for domestic applicants; 8 seats for international applicants).

Domestic Student Applicants: <http://osot.ubc.ca/prospective-students/application-procedures/>

International Student Applicants: <http://osot.ubc.ca/prospective-students/welcome-international-applicants/application-procedures-for-international-applicants/>

The Department of Occupational Science and Occupational Therapy
Faculty of Medicine
University of British Columbia
T325 – 2211 Westbrook Mall,
Vancouver, BC V6T 2B5

Email: os.ot@ubc.ca
Phone: (604) 822-7392
Website: osot.ubc.ca

Prospective students must refer to the UBC website for a complete list of all admission requirements:

<http://osot.ubc.ca/prospective-students/mot-program-information/>

Completion of a 4 year recognized bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution in any field and the successful completion of the following prerequisites:

- Human Anatomy (3 credits) TRU OL’s BIOL 3701
- Social Sciences (3 credits)- example: Sociology, Anthropology, Human Geography
- Behavioural Sciences (3 credits)- example: Psychology

If a course outside of the above listed disciplines, email a detailed course outline to mot.admissions@ubc.ca for approval.

Academic standing of a minimum B+ (76%) average in ALL senior level courses (3000 and 4000 level). Competitive GPA for the program is approximately 84%.

70 volunteer hours of work or interactive voluntary work experience with individuals with disabilities

A minimum of 70 hours of volunteer or paid work which includes direct contact involving interacting with persons with cognitive, emotional or physical disabilities at no more than two facilities.

English Competency- refer to website for specifics to satisfy this requirement.

Residency - Preference for admission is given to residents of British Columbia.

Interview – applicants who meet the above minimum requirements are eligible for interview consideration (verbal communication skill, maturity and personal suitability). The interview will comprise of a verbal interview. Fulfilment of the minimum requirements, however, does not guarantee an interview. Selection of interview candidates is based on the academic standing in the senior level courses. Refer to website for more information.

Graduate Record Examination (GRE) – Optional; refer to website for more details

Criminal Record Review Act - refer to website

Online Application and Documentation Deadlines: <http://osot.ubc.ca/prospective-students/application-procedures/>

Note: The following information is intended as a guideline for MOT bound students planning to apply for admission to the program offered at UBC. Due to changes that can occur at any post-secondary institution, it is the student’s responsibility to check they have met the requirements of the institution and chosen program.