

Professional Development for Health Care Certificate Program

How it works

Are you interested in expanding your skill set, but are unable to commit to taking a long-term program? Our Professional Development for Health Care Certificate Program might be for you!

This program will give you the flexibility to invest as much or as little time as you want, depending on your workload or other commitments. When you have completed all six courses in the program, you will earn you a completion certificate.

The practical skills you will learn will be relatable for all careers and will make a great addition to your resume.

Each course will focus on strategies for communicating effectively in the health care field.

You will acquire the specific terms you need to function effectively in an English-speaking health care environment.

Professional Development for Health Care

Regardless of where they are located in the world, medical facilities frequently deal with English speaking patients. In some cases, English is even used by the majority of admissions. Having health care providers who can convey important information accurately and fluently can be a tremendous advantage. This comprehensive (and customizable) program is designed to equip you with the specific terms and expressions needed for success.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ENGLISH FOR HEALTH CARE PART ONE: This course will serve as a foundation for the two English for Healthcare courses that follow. Learn to identify and name hospital departments, branches of medicine, common symptoms and basic anatomical and physiological features. Develop strategies for “decoding” terms by examining roots, prefixes and suffixes.

INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION SKILLS: Understanding culture and how it impacts our interactions is critical in today’s globalized world. You will explore basic culture theory, verbal and non-verbal communication, cultural gaffes, and much more. Equipped with new practical skills, you will be able to navigate through cultural complexities with ease and confidence.

ENGLISH FOR HEALTH CARE PART TWO: Building on the foundation established in Part One, we will shift to more complex anatomy and physiology using body systems as a framework. Units of measure will be reviewed. You will survey a range of authentic documents and recordings to gain familiarity with terminology used in context.

INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION SKILLS: Whether dealing with a sudden, life-threatening event or taking the time to put a surgical patient’s fears at ease, it is not enough to simply know medical terminology. This course provides opportunities to develop and expand skills for communicating with coworkers and patients. Topics include explaining procedures, paraphrasing, using reflective listening skills, expressing empathy, and more.

ENGLISH FOR HEALTH CARE PART THREE: Moving on from Parts One and Two, you will shift your attention to medical conditions and diseases. Those who practice in a specialty will be invited to develop an individualized plan and focus on specific terms and expressions for use in that area.

MEDICINE IN THE MEDIA: The news provides an excellent platform for exploring emerging trends, discussing ethical issues and examining nuances of cultural variations. You will develop and expand your English skills while listening to podcasts, viewing film clips, reading articles and discussing important insights.

Customized offerings are available upon request

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN

- > Certificate in Professional Development in Health Care upon completion of all six courses
- > Increased communication skills in English
- > Knowledge of English medical terminology and vocabulary
- > Strategies for effective communication with people from other cultures
- > Functional language skills

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

- > Computer: laptop or PC is recommended
 - Cell phones are not appropriate
- > Reliable internet connection
- > Positive attitude and willingness to learn
- > CEFR level B1 or higher, IELTS 4.5 or higher and TOEFL 42 or higher or Duolingo 60

Course Fees

CAD $450/course

Attend five courses and get the sixth course for FREE

Apply online
truworld.ca/itc

For more information please email
globaltraining@tru.ca

Thompson Rivers University
805 TRU Way, Kamloops, BC Canada V2C 0C8

