TRU's Kamloops and Williams Lake campuses are located on the traditional territory of the Secwépemc peoples, in British Columbia's southern interior. In Kamloops (from the Secwépemc word for “meeting of the waters”), the main campus overlooks the junction of the North Thompson and South Thompson rivers, from which the university gets its name.

Kamloops is home to 100,000 friendly residents and is rich with sporting and cultural events, and boasts four beautiful, changing seasons to enjoy outdoor adventures.

This region is part of the traditional lands of the Tkemlúps te Secwépemc Indigenous people and spans grasslands, pine forests, lakes and mountains. Their presence and history contributes to the diversity that influences TRU’s campus.

You’ll discover parks, museums, art galleries, year-round outdoor activities, shopping, movies, theatre, vineyards and BC’s second largest ski resort. Kamloops is also home to numerous churches, a mosque, Sikh temples and a Buddhist temple.
