TRU Refund Rules for International Students

Students should familiarize themselves with TRU's refund policy prior to submitting payment for their studies.

All new international applicants to TRU should be aware that their first semester tuition fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

After receiving the Letter of Acceptance the applicant is expected to begin their studies at TRU.

New International students who:

- Withdraw prior to the start of instruction will not receive a refund of tuition fees deposit invoiced. It is important that students understand this prior to making a tuition deposit.
- Withdraw due to a failure to obtain a student permit prior to arrival at TRU will be entitled to a refund of tuition and general fees invoiced less a $200.00 administration fee. Students must notify TRU in writing and provide documentation prior to the start of the semester. TRU will verify with IRCC that the visa refusals are legitimate and after this process is complete send the request to our Finance office for processing. The process can take from 4 to 8 weeks to complete. Total non-refundable including application fee is $300.00 (includes $100.00 application fee). Fees paid by credit card will be credited back to the original card used. In all other cases the fees will be refunded to the student by wire transfer. If the original payment was made by a third party the student can grant permission for the refund to be sent directly to that party.
- New students that wish to defer the start of their first semester of study to a future semester may do so only once and up to a maximum of one calendar year (i.e. a student accepted to the fall semester may defer until the next fall semester but not beyond). TRU will hold and retain 100% of all paid tuition and other fees and apply these to the new semester. All tuition paid to TRU will be forfeited if the applicant does not register and begin classes within one calendar year of the start date noted in the original Letter of Acceptance. Deferral must be requested in writing and sent to iapply@tru.ca prior to the start of the semester.
- Withdrawal for Medical Reasons—Apart from the rules outlined for international students, there is no provision for a medical refund outside this policy.
