Concord Floral was first produced in 2014 by Suburban Beast and presented by Why Not Theatre at the Theatre Centre (Toronto, ON).

It was written by Jordan Tannahill and developed over a three-year period with Erin Brubacher, Cara Spooner and a group of teenagers from across the Greater Toronto Area. The original production was created and directed by Erin Brubacher, Cara Spooner, and Jordan Tannahill. Concord Floral is produced by permission of the Playwright and Marquis Literary (Colin Rivers) www.mqlit.ca
We wish to acknowledge that we are on land located in the Tk’emlúps te Secwépemc territory within the unceded traditional lands of the Secwépemc Nation. We extend our appreciation for the opportunity to live, create and perform on this beautiful territory.

COMING UP AT AWT

Drinking in America
by Eric Bogosian
Directed by Wesley Eccleston
Nov 26-28, Dec 3-5

Winner of the 1986 Obie Award for Best New Play, Drinking in America is a full-length collection of hilarious, tough, and touching theatrical monologues. It is a wild, nightmarish ride through an America where success can excuse a lot of faults.

"A breakneck, hair raising comic tour of the American psyche." — The New York Times

"Cleverly written.... It sinks its teeth deep into America and gives us something to chew on." — New York Magazine
