

PROVOST AND VICE-PRESIDENT ACADEMIC

At Thompson Rivers University (TRU), student success is our priority. We empower our students to reach their goals with many paths to learning, an applied approach and a supportive, inclusive environment. We are committed to both academic excellence and accessibility for all, opening doors and opening minds. TRU is a comprehensive, learner-centred, environmentally responsible institution that serves its regional, national, and international learners and their communities through high quality and flexible education, training, research and scholarship. From traditional academics to trades, from certificates to graduate degrees, TRU offers students choice from over 140 on-campus programs and 50 Open Learning programs. More than 28,900 students study on campuses in Kamloops and Williams Lake and in regional centres throughout the interior, or in distance or online courses and programs through Open Learning. Research, knowledge creation and innovation thrive in TRU's open, flexible learning environment.

The Provost and Vice-President Academic is the chief academic, operating, and budget officer for TRU. Working closely with the President and collaboratively as a senior member of the executive team, the Provost leads and supports the efforts of the deans, faculty, and staff to drive academic excellence across the institution in alignment with TRU's vision, mission, values, and strategic goals. The Provost is expected to promote, enhance, and be an advocate for the quality of the academic experience and the teaching, learning, and research environment of TRU's students, faculty and staff. The Provost also carries budgetary authority for the university and responsibility for the day-to-day operations attributed to the portfolio.

The search committee acknowledges that no single individual is likely to meet all of the following criteria in equal measure; nevertheless, the successful candidate will demonstrate:

- A reputation as a respected scholar and faculty member with a demonstrated commitment to academic excellence, the value of academic integrity and freedom and to the pursuit of knowledge
- Dynamic and effective leadership in a complex university environment
- A genuine and proven record of action of reconciliation, decolonization and partnerships with Indigenous Nations (locally, throughout Turtle Island and internationally), Indigenous students, faculty staff and organizations
- Experience recruiting and inspiring strong, effective academic, research and administrative leaders

Salary range: $209,000 – $237,000 – TRU offers a competitive benefits package, pension plan and relocation assistance.

Thompson Rivers University is strongly committed to hiring based on merit with a focus on fostering diversity of thought within our community. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our staff, our faculty and its scholarship including, but not limited to, women, Indigenous, Black and People of Color, persons with disabilities and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, however applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
