

Integrated Strategic Planning Steering Committee Terms of Reference

1.0 PURPOSE

The Integrated Strategic Planning Steering Committee (ISPSC) is responsible for overseeing the establishment of the integrated strategic planning (ISP) process at Thompson Rivers University (TRU). The purpose of this process is to create and prepare an Integrated Strategic Plan for endorsement to the TRU governance bodies at the end of the 2021/22 academic year. The ISPSC advises the Interim Provost and Vice-President Academic and Research on matters related to the integrated strategic planning and will be supported by the Integrated Strategic Planning Project Team (ISP Project Team).

2.0 COMMITTEE FUNCTIONS & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Provide advice and guidance on the establishment of integrated strategic planning and the development of an institutional integrated strategic plan and strategic priorities.
2. Provide supports for member's unit strategic plan and amendments.
3. Work with member's unit to contribute to the institutional integrated strategic plan.
4. Participate in the ISPSC activities and workshops.
5. Provide opportunities and encourage dialogue among students, faculty, staff, and administration with respect to integrated strategic planning.
6. Provide input on internal and external communication to keep the TRU community informed of and engaged in the integrated strategic planning process.
7. Establish such subcommittees and working groups as needed to fulfil the ISPSC's responsibilities.
8. Other duties as assigned by the Interim Provost and Vice-President Academic and Research.

5.0 MEETING GUIDELINES

The ISPSC will be guided by the following indicators of good practice:

- Agenda for the Committee will be distributed to members at least four working days prior to the meeting.
- Minutes will be taken at each meeting and confirmed at the following meetings. All corrections to minutes must be tabled at the meeting.
- Decisions taken at meetings will be noted and the minutes will be distributed to Committee members within two weeks of the committee meeting.
- A minimum one-week notice will be given for additional meeting.
- If the member is unavailable to attend, a representative from member's unit planning team should be designated to attend the meeting. The name of the representative should be communicated to the Chair before the start of the meeting.
