

JOURNALISM

Cultivate your reporting skills and excel in the evolving world of journalism and communication. Receive hands-on instruction in facilities equipped to help you succeed in the real world. Develop skills rooted in the fundamentals of journalism: writing, editing, photography, presentation, theory, law and ethics. The program gives you the chance to build a professional portfolio through assignments, work opportunities and practicums.

CONTACT US

SHANNON SMYRL

Chair, Department of Journalism, Communication & New Media

Email: ssmyrl@tru.ca

Phone: 250-852-7299

ADMISSIONS

Applications for admission to most programs are accepted starting Oct. 1 each year for programs that begin in August or September of the following year. Check the website complete details on admissions processes:

Apply On-Line visit: www.tru.ca/future/admissions

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

Faculty of Arts

LEARN BOTH THEORY AND PRACTICE

The practical side of the program focuses on writing, editing, interviewing, taking photographs, and working with new technology to produce print and online publications.

The theory side of the program emphasizes media law, journalistic ethics, decision-making and critical thinking.

Students are encouraged to develop and hone their skills through working with widely-circulated hard copy and electronic publications. The program is also structured to accommodate students with a wide range of educational and practical experience, as well as to provide a broad set of career and educational options for graduates.

CAREERS FOR GRADUATES

Reporting
Editing
Media relations
Corporate communications
Social media
Copywriting
Blogging
Technical writing
Community relations
Advertising
Photojournalism

FOR MORE INFO VISIT: WWW.TRU.CA/ARTS/DEPARTMENTS/JOURNALISM