TRU Environmental Sustainability Achievement Awards

TRU's Environmental Sustainability Advisory Committee (ESAC) is looking for nominees for two Environmental Sustainability Achievement Awards: one for students and one for faculty or staff members.

Nominees should be recognized by staff, students, or faculty as individuals who significantly help to advance sustainability. The ESAC Selection Committee will review nominations and make recommendations regarding the award recipients based on the following criteria:

- Significance of the contribution made by the nominee to environmental sustainability;
- The magnitude of the influence of the contribution (quantitative measures of the effects of the contribution should be provided when possible);
- The breadth of the influence of the contribution (the number of people or groups positively affected);
- Innovation and originality.
- Any supporting information that highlights what the nominee has done in the realm of advancing environmental sustainability is welcome to include in the application (CVs, articles, social or traditional media involvement, videos, written material, etc.)
