

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY
DIRECTED STUDY IN BIOLOGY (BIOL 448)

Timeline
January 2007

Date:	Action	Responsibility
November 15	Presentation to 3 rd year students on research opportunities	Department, initiated by chair
January - March	Biology 398 (optional for Directed Study students) 3 rd year students confer with prospective supervisors.	Instructors Student
April 15  Note: late applications may be accepted, at the discretion of the Department.	Student submits application and a project proposal for Directed Study to the B.Sc. advisor.	Student, with supervision Supervisor takes initiative on generating realistic budget and other requirements. Supplies/space/resources requirements to be reviewed by the supervisor with the appropriate lab faculty.
By May 1 (normally)	Departmental committee meets to review applications and decide on acceptance	Department
Summer, Fall & Winter	Research Projects undertaken Student meets regularly with supervisor	Student, with supervision
By February 28	First draft of project report submitted to supervisor	Student
End of March	Poster Presentation	Student
By April 11	Revised draft of report submitted to supervisor and co-supervisor for evaluation	Student
By May 1	Submission of final, revised version of Directed Study project report	Student